

World Faiths Season

The Global Ethics Exhibition

17 October - 12 November

This exhibition of 'World religions – Universal peace – Global ethic' invites you to explore the fascinating world of the religions so that you can have a better understanding of the importance of their ethical messages for our present-day society.

The panels show seven traditions (Jewish, Christian, Muslim, Hindu, Buddhist, Chinese, Sikh) with central ethical beliefs forming the substance of the text; one panel on the Enlightenment tradition, one on the shared Golden Rule, and four on the recommendations of the Global Ethic formulation itself. You can read more at www.weltethos.org

Nathan the Wise

29 October

7.30pm

A reading of 'Nathan the Wise' – by the 18th century playwright G E Lessing. A fascinating and humane encounter between representatives of Christianity, Judaism and Islam. Presented by Rick Jones and friends. For further information please contact Susanna Bloomfield 020 7367 6700 or 6717.

Moral Maze on 'Greed or Need?'

5 November

7.00pm

The World Congress of Faiths follow the pattern of the well-loved Radio 4 Moral Maze panel show. For further information please contact: The Secretary of the South London Interfaith Group on secretary@southlondoninterfaith.org.uk

Prayers for Peace on Remembrance Sunday

8 November

4.15pm for 4.30pm

This is a joint South London Inter Faith Group/World Congress of Faiths event. Rabbi Jackie Tabick, Chair of WCF, will be present and participating. There will be a candle installation 'in the midst'. At 5.30 pm those attending will move in to the Education Centre where refreshments will be served. For further information please contact The Secretary of the South London Interfaith Group on secretary@southlondoninterfaith.org.uk

Sea of Stories

19 November

7.00pm

An evening for the first National Inter-Faith week 15 – 22 November

Storytellers from five faiths (Christian, Muslim, Jewish, Hindu and Buddhist) will devise a programme of stories from different religious traditions, linked together by universal themes. Southwark Cathedral is just one of the leading places of worship chosen for this series. Other locations include the West London Synagogue, the Central London Mosque and The Jamyang Buddhist Centre.

For further information please contact: Simon Keyes
St Ethelburga's Centre for Reconciliation and Peace
T: 020 7496 1618
www.stethelburgas.org